Sermon Notes ...

Book: GALATIANS

Title: “Missing Pieces”

Scripture: GALATIANS 1:6-9

1. A false gospel places people on a path of E_____ damnation. (1:8-9)
2. The complete gospel message is made up of L_____ and G_____. Two sides. The Law teaches us that we have a P_____, and grace teaches us that there is a S_____. (ROMANS 6:23)
3. An I_____ gospel message, one with missing pieces, does not and cannot S_____ anybody. (1:8-9)

QUOTES

“The greedy materialism of the prosperity gospel turns the biblical gospel on its head. The true gospel is an offer of salvation from sin and spiritual death. The prosperity gospel ignores those eternal realities and falsely promises deliverance from temporal problems like financial poverty and physical sickness. Jesus called His disciples to abandon all, take up their crosses, and follow Him (LUKE 9:23). By contrast, the prosperity gospel offers carnal comforts, earthly riches, and worldly success to millions of desperate people who literally buy into it. Whereas the true gospel centers on the glory of God, the prosperity gospel puts man’s wants and desires front and center.”

... John MacArthur

“The success of an illegitimate coin depends largely upon how closely the counterfeit resembles the genuine article. Heresy is not so much the total denial of the truth as a perversion of it. That is why half a lie is always more dangerous than a complete repudiation. Hence when the Father of Lies enters the pulpit it is not his custom to flatly deny the fundamental truths of Christianity, rather does he tacitly acknowledge them, and then proceed to give an erroneous interpretation and a false application.”
