Social Distancing ...

It is good to be back here at BGCC as a Body of Believers assembled together to worship God! It is important that we follow the restrictions set up by our governing officials. Please follow these simple restrictions and conditions:

- J Masks must now be worn in all indoor public gathering places. It is required that you wear a mask during this service unless you qualify as an exception. The five exceptions are: 1) When eating or drinking. 2) While exercising. 3) If you have trouble breathing or are unable to remove the mask without help. 4) If you have a health condition that prevents you from wearing a face covering. 5) Children under 10.
- J We will practice social distancing. Please stay a minimum of 6-feet away from others as much as possible. Do not congregate in the front of church, in the narthex, in the parking lot, or anywhere on church property. Let's all keep a safe distance from others.
- J Seating is limited to one family per pew.
- J You may only sit next to those you have been quarantined with since this pandemic began.
- J Sit on the extreme end of the pew and stagger this seating. For instance, a husband/wife sit on the extreme right side of pew #4. Anyone who sits in pews #3 or 5 will sit on the extreme left side of the pew.
- J Masks and hand sanitizer are available upon request.
- J No hugging, handshakes, or holy kisses.

QUOTES

"God warned Lot's wife of the impending disaster. He tried to rescue her from His judgment. He even set her on the way to salvation, shepherding her to safety. But the bent of her heart was even more powerful than the grasp of the angels leading her by the hand. She gave proof that she had never taken God seriously when she would not sever her heart-ties with Sodom. She came as close to deliverance without receiving it as was possible. Looking to the past she destroyed her future. Having received the grace of God in vain, she passed the point of no return. Not even the fire and brimstone falling around her could heal her divided heart. We might feel inclined to ask why Lot's wife paid such a price for her error. Oh, but she sinned grievously against the Lord. Not only did she lack the pioneering pilgrim spirit required of those who leave their former lives for a better city, but she was in love with the sinful world. What she left behind and still held in her heart obviously was very dear to her, dearer than the treasures of God."

Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me! Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me! I would redeem them, but they speak lies against Me. And they do not cry to Me from their heart when they wail on their beds; for the sake of grain and new wine they assemble themselves, They turn away from Me.
