Social Distancing ...

It is good to be back here at BGCC as a Body of Believers assembled together to worship God! It is important that we follow the restrictions set up by our governing officials. Please follow these simple restrictions and conditions:

- J Masks must now be worn in all indoor public gathering places. It is required that you wear a mask during this service unless you qualify as an exception. The five exceptions are: 1) When eating or drinking. 2) While exercising. 3) If you have trouble breathing or are unable to remove the mask without help. 4) If you have a health condition that prevents you from wearing a face covering. 5) Children under 10.
- J We will practice social distancing. Please stay a minimum of 6-feet away from others as much as possible. Do not congregate in the front of church, in the narthex, in the parking lot, or anywhere on church property. Let's all keep a safe distance from others.
- J Seating is limited to one family per pew.
- J You may only sit next to those you have been quarantined with since this pandemic began.
- J Sit on the extreme end of the pew and stagger this seating. For instance, a husband/wife sit on the extreme right side of pew #4. Anyone who sits in pews #3 or 5 will sit on the extreme left side of the pew.
- J Masks and hand sanitizer are available upon request.
- J No hugging, handshakes, or holy kisses.

QUOTES

"The greatest weakness in the church today is that the servants of God keep looking over their shoulder for the approval of men."

"In every age the church is threatened by heresy, and heresy is bound up in false doctrine. It is the desire of all heretics to minimize the importance of doctrine. When doctrine is minimized, heresy can exercise itself without restraint."

"The problem in the church today is not the profession of faith, but it's possession."

"Apostasy occurs when a church leaves its historic moorings, abandons its historic confessional position, and degenerates into a state where either essential Christian truths are blatantly denied or the denial of such truths is widely tolerated."

"You are required to believe, to preach, and to teach what the Bible says is true, not what you want the Bible to say is true."

"When God says something, the argument is over."

But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron, men who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth.
