Social Distancing ...

It is good to be back here at BGCC as a Body of Believers assembled together to worship God! It is important that we follow the restrictions set up by our governing officials. Please follow these simple restrictions and conditions:

-] Masks must now be worn in all indoor public gathering places. It is required that you wear a mask during this service unless you qualify as an exception. The five exceptions are: 1) When eating or drinking. 2) While exercising. 3) If you have trouble breathing or are unable to remove the mask without help. 4) If you have a health condition that prevents you from wearing a face covering. 5) Children under 10.
-] We will practice social distancing. Please stay a minimum of 6-feet away from others as much as possible. Do not congregate in the front of church, in the narthex, in the parking lot, or anywhere on church property. Let's all keep a safe distance from others.
-] Seating is limited to one family per pew.
-] You may only sit next to those you have been quarantined with since this pandemic began.
-] Sit on the extreme end of the pew and stagger this seating. For instance, a husband/wife sit on the extreme right side of pew #4. Anyone who sits in pews #3 or 5 will sit on the extreme left side of the pew.
-] Masks and hand sanitizer are available upon request.
-] No hugging, handshakes, or holy kisses.

Series: CHRISTIANITY IN TROUBLED TIMES

Title: "Empty Deceptions"

Scripture: COLOSSIANS 2:8

DEFINITIONS

DECEPTION (n): the act of causing someone to accept as true or valid what is false or invalid.

QUOTES

"Anytime superstition or magic invades religion, it is always couched in spiritual terms. No one walks into a church and says 'from now on we're going to be practicing magic.' I think, in our day, the Holy Spirit is invoked in the name of magic more than He has ever been invoked in that way in the history of the church. And there's that line between true faith in the power of God and reliance upon the power of the Holy Spirit, and a superstitious approach to it by which we think we have the power to manipulate the Holy Spirit Himself. That's a very, very dangerous thing. That's why all of the practice of worship in the Christian life has to be subject to the Law of God."

... R.C. Sproul

"In my opinion, advocating, allowing and practicing psychiatric and psychoanalytical dogmas within the church is every bit as pagan and heretical (and therefore perilous) as propagating the teachings of some of the most bizarre cults. The only vital difference is that the cults are less dangerous because their errors are more identifiable."

As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ.
