Series: ARE WE IN END TIMES?
 Title: “Bound and Released”
 Scripture: MATTHEW 12:25-29

AMILLENIALISM

DEFINITIONS

AMILLENIALISM (n): the denial that a literal earthly millennium of universal righteousness and peace will either precede or follow the second advent of Jesus Christ.

QUOTES

“At the end of the age there will emerge an intensified form of tribulation and apostasy as well as a personal antichrist (the Amillennialist, however, does not identify this period of tribulation with Daniel’s 70th Week, as does the Dispensational Premillennialist, nor does he define its purpose as having anything to do with the restoration of national theocratic Israel. It should be noted, however, that some Amillennialists do believe in a mass salvation of ethnic Israel at the end of the age). Christ’s return at the close of this period will synchronize with the general resurrection and general judgment of all men, believers and unbelievers alike, to be followed immediately by the eternal state (i.e., the new heavens and the new earth). In other words, here is the major point of difference between the Amillennialist and Premillennialist: the former denies whereas the latter affirms an earthly, visible rule of Christ for 1,000 years between His second coming and the final resurrection, judgment, and introduction of the eternal state.”

SCRIPTURE BIBLE JEOPARDY (based on NASB translation)

Search this weeks' Scripture reading to come up with the correct questions to these answers.

1. Do this with all the produce from what you sow out of the field every year.
2. Blessings in the land of promise if the Israelites obey. But this if they don't.
3. If a prophet or dreamer of dreams counsels rebellion against the Lord, this is to be their fate.
4. The Israelites could eat meat but not this because the life of the flesh is in this.
5. This blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

Now having been questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed; nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or, 'There it is!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."
