DEFINITIONS

APANTESIS (v): the verb "meet" in 1THESS 4:17 is the Greek word "apantesis." In the first century when a dignitary or conqueror was returning to his city, the people of the city would go out to meet him and escort him in celebration back into the city. The same Greek word is used to signify the "rapture" or the "calling away" of the church in 1THESS 4:17, which coincides with the glorious return of Jesus Christ.

QUOTES

"In the day that we stand before our Master and Maker, it will not matter how many people on earth knew our name, how many called us great, and how many considered us fools. It will not matter whether schools and hospitals were named after us, whether our estate was large or small, whether our funeral drew ten thousand or no one. It will not matter what the newspapers or history books said or didn't say. What will matter is one thing and one thing only – what the Master thinks of us."

... Randy Alcorn

"And so in the judgment day, the inquiry will be made not into our opinions or professions alone, but into our deeds, as proving the correctness of our faith and the sincerity of our professions."

... George Bethune

AMILLENIALISM

For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words. Now as to the times and the epochs, brethren, you have no need of anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know full well that the day of the Lord will come just like a thief in the night. While they are saying, "Peace and safety!" then destruction will come upon them suddenly like labor pains upon a woman with child, and they will not escape.

2. You shall put these on the four corners of the garment you wear.
3. Multiply horses, cause the people to return to Egypt, multiply wives, or increase in silver and gold.

"So just as the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness, and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear."
