DEFINITIONS

COVENANT (n): a usually formal, solemn, and binding agreement.

PROMISE (n): a legally binding declaration that gives the person to whom it is made a right to expect or to claim the performance or forbearance of a specified act.

QUOTES

“The promises of the Bible are nothing more than God’s covenant to be faithful to His people. It is His character that makes these promises valid.”

... Jerry Bridges

“God’s love is the most awesome thing about Him. It is not His justice, nor His majesty, nor even His blazing holiness, but the fact that He has made and keeps a covenant of personal commitment and love to His people.”

... Sinclair Ferguson

“This covenant reveals a love which is unparalleled and exceeds all comprehension. Think of what a blessing it is that you and I have been considered and known in this covenant, to have been given by the Father to the Son. Think of what a blessing it is that you and I have had our names written by the Son in His Book of Life. Think of what a blessing it is that you and I have been the objects of the eternal mutual delight of the Father and the Son to save us.”
