BIBLE DICTIONARY

AUTHORITY (n): Power to influence or command thought, opinion, or behavior.

QUOTES

"Many seem to think they have a responsibility to submit to authority only as long as they agree with it, or as long as it is fair in their eyes, or as long as it does not require too much inconvenience."

... Bryan Chapell

"Are we under His authority, or our own? You can't "yes, but" to Scripture. He said it, or He didn't say it. And we either obey, or we do not. It is not we who have the authority. It is the Lord. His name is Jesus and His title is "the Christ." And He has it all. He will share it with no one."

... Cal Thomas

"God did not inherit His authority—there was no one to bequeath it to Him. God did not receive His authority—there was no one to bestow it on Him. God's authority did not come by way of an election—there was no one to vote for Him. God did not seize His authority—there was no one from whom to steal it. God did not earn His authority—it was already His."

... John MacArthur
