WEBSTER DEFINITIONS

REVELATION (n): an act of revealing or communicating divine truth; something that is revealed by God to humans.

QUOTES

"The Bible was written by ordinary men. They had their own thoughts, ideas, and opinions which they recorded in both the Old and New Testaments. God did not reach down and take hold of their pens, causing them to write things which they would have never thought to write. And except for the instances where His audible words were recorded, God did not dictate the words of Scripture. Rather, He worked in these men, through their unique personalities, experiences, emotions, and intellects, causing them to record His words."

... Daryl Wingerd

"One proof of the inspiration of the Bible is that it has withstood so much poor preaching."

... A.T. Robertson

"Nothing is more offensive to the Author of Scripture than to disregard, deny, or distort the truth He has revealed (REV 22:18-19). To mishandle the Word of God is to misrepresent the One who wrote it. To reject its claims is to call Him a liar. To ignore its message is to snub that which the Holy Spirit inspired."
