Social Distancing ...

It is good to be back here at BGCC as a Body of Believers assembled together to worship God! Please follow these simple restrictions and conditions:

-) We will practice social distancing. Please stay a minimum of 6-feet away from others as much as possible. Do not congregate in the front of church, in the narthex, in the parking lot, or anywhere on church property. Let’s all keep a safe distance from others.
-) Seating is limited to one family per pew.
-) You may only sit next to those you have been quarantined with since this pandemic began.
-) Sit on the extreme end of the pew and stagger this seating. For instance, a husband/wife sit on the extreme right side of pew #4. Anyone who sits in pews #3 or 5 will sit on the extreme left side of the pew.
-) Masks and hand sanitizer are available upon request.
-) No hugging, handshakes, or holy kisses.

WEBSTER DEFINITIONS

ADMISSION (n): an acknowledgment of the truth of something.

RECOMMISSION (n): to appoint or assign to a task or function a second time.

INTERMISSION (n): an interval between periods of activity.

QUOTES

“The Bible was written by ordinary men. They had their own thoughts, ideas, and opinions which they recorded in both the Old and New Testaments. God did not reach down and take hold of their pens, causing them to write things which they would have never thought to write. And except for the instances where His audible words were recorded, God did not dictate the words of Scripture. Rather, He worked in these men, through their unique personalities, experiences, emotions, and intellects, causing them to record His words.”

... Daryl Wingerd

“Nothing is more offensive to the Author of Scripture than to disregard, deny, or distort the truth He has revealed (REV 22:18–19). To mishandle the Word of God is to misrepresent the One who wrote it. To reject its claims is to call Him a liar. To ignore its message is to snub that which the Holy Spirit inspired.”
