Social Distancing ...

It is good to be back here at BGCC as a Body of Believers assembled together to worship God! It is important that we follow the restrictions set up by our governing officials. Please follow these simple restrictions and conditions:

-] Masks must now be worn in all indoor public gathering places. It is required that you wear a mask during this service unless you qualify as an exception. The five exceptions are: 1) When eating or drinking. 2) While exercising. 3) If you have trouble breathing or are unable to remove the mask without help. 4) If you have a health condition that prevents you from wearing a face covering. 5) Children under 10.
-] We will practice social distancing. Please stay a minimum of 6-feet away from others as much as possible. Do not congregate in the front of church, in the narthex, in the parking lot, or anywhere on church property. Let's all keep a safe distance from others.
-] Seating is limited to one family per pew.
-] You may only sit next to those you have been quarantined with since this pandemic began.
-] Sit on the extreme end of the pew and stagger this seating. For instance, a husband/wife sit on the extreme right side of pew #4. Anyone who sits in pews #3 or 5 will sit on the extreme left side of the pew.
-] Masks and hand sanitizer are available upon request.
-] No hugging, handshakes, or holy kisses.

Sermon Notes ...

Series: CHRISTIANITY IN TROUBLED TIMES
 Title: "God's Breaking Point"
 Scripture: ROMANS 11:33-36

Israel. _____

King David. _____

Uzzah. _____

Mankind. _____

DEFINITIONS

BREAKING POINT (n): the point at which a situation becomes critical.

QUOTES

"Most of us have become so familiar with sin that we no longer see it as a deadly monster. Sin is more dangerous than wild bears, more deadly than blazing forest fires. Ask Nebuchadnezzar, who lost his mind because he refused to deal with his pride. Ask Samson, who was reduced to a pathetic shred of a man because he never got control over the lusts of his flesh. Ask Achan and Ananias and Sapphira, who all lost their lives over 'small,' secret sins."

... Nancy Leigh DeMoss

"How perverted the creature who sins against His Creator and then demands and expects mercy from the just consequences of such. How dare we think that we should be allowed continue in the deceitful pleasures of our sin and then expect mercy when the despairing consequences result. We are called to repent and obey, not expect and demand that which we do not deserve."

... Bob LaForge

"Preaching is God's appointed means for the conversion of sinners, the awakening of the church, and the preservation of the saints. If preaching fails in its task, the consequences are infinitely terrible."

... John Piper

For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge His people." It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
