HISTORICAL FACT

In 40AD, Caius Caligula, the emperor of the Roman empire, issued a peremptory decree ordering the erection and worship of his statue in the Temple of God. He also appointed to the government of Syria, bidding him carry out that decree even at the cost of a war against the rebellious Jews. Whereupon the Jews in tens of thousands protested to the governor that they were willing to be slaughtered rather than to be condemned to witness that idolatrous profanation of their holy Temple. Soon afterward Petronius asked Caligula to revoke his order, and Agrippa I (ACTS 25-26), who then lived at Rome, prevailed upon the Emperor not to enforce his decree. It seems, however, that Caligula soon repented of the concession, and that but for his untimely death (41AD) he would have had his statue set up in Jerusalem.

QUOTES

“The goal of studying eschatology is not mere head knowledge or the disputes over the specific details. The goal is edification that promotes godly living. The goal is allowing the risen Lamb to live His victorious life through you. The goal is Gospel-centered, Holy Spirit-empowered transformation. And my friends, if you are living like that day-to-day, you will always be ready for whatever happens and whenever our Lord chooses to return (1THESS 5:4).”

MIDWEEK MESSAGE for 8/26/2020

This week’s YouTube Midweek Message will be a critical addition to our series on “Are We in End Times?” It is a message I previously delivered concerning the end times and it will help us all to understand some of the points I will be bringing up today concerning signs of the end times. I’ll be sending out the YouTube link first thing on Wednesday morning!

Therefore, be on the alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning—in case he should come suddenly and find you asleep. What I say to you I say to all, 'Be on the alert!'.
