How Great Is Our God

The splendor of a King, clothed in majesty
 Let all the earth rejoice, all the earth rejoice
 He wraps himself in light, and darkness tries to hide
 And trembles at His voice, and trembles at His voice

How great is our God, sing with me
 How great is our God,
 And all will see how great,
 How great is our God

Age to age He stands, and time is in His Hands
 Beginning and the End, Beginning and the End
 The Godhead three in one, Father, Spirit, Son
 The Lion and the Lamb, the Lion and the Lamb

Sermon Notes ...

Series: Book of GALATIANS
 Title: "Meet the Leaders"
 Scripture: GALATIANS 1:18-24

GEOGRAPHY

GALATIA: Galatia was bounded on the north by Bithynia and Paphlagonia, on the east by Pontus and Cappadocia, on the south by Cilicia and Lycaonia, and on the west by Phrygia. Its capital was Ancyra (i.e. Ankara, today the capital of modern Turkey).

QUOTES

"In the days of hardship, particularly persecution, those who are in the process of becoming Christians count the cost of discipleship carefully before taking up the cross of the Nazarene. Preachers do not beguile them with false promises of an easy life or indulgence of sins. But in good times, the cost does not seem so high, and people take the name of Christ without undergoing the radical transformation of life that true conversion implies."

... James Montgomery Boice

"Clearly many Christians have not embraced the fact that Christians must be committed to Christ and His teachings. They may have mentally assented to certain gospel facts ... joined a church ... repeated a prayer ... walked forward at an evangelistic meeting. But by any biblical measurement they were never converted. There was no transforming conviction of sin, no repentance, no commitment to Christ's lordship, no love for those who love Christ."

After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep; then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles; and last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared to me also.
