QUOTES

“Sincere repentance is never too late, but late repentance is seldom sincere. The thief on the cross repented, and was pardoned in the last hour of his life. We have one such instance in Scripture – that none might despair; and only one – that none might presume.”

... Gorham Abbott

“Contemporary Christian literature is awash with the notion that, in order to be effective and successful, we must respond to market forces. In earlier generations, such an approach was unheard of. The tactic employed by Paul in Corinth was far closer to the model of the day. ‘Jesus Christ and Him crucified.’ That was his message. Even though the Corinthians were demanding miracles and wisdom, Paul did not give them what they wanted. Indeed, he continued to supply the one thing they clearly did not want – preaching. He rejected the style and content that was most acceptable in his day. It is not possible to give people what they want to hear and proclaim the message of the Cross at one and the same time.”

For indeed Jews ask for signs and Greeks search for wisdom; but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews a stumbling block and to Gentiles foolishness, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.
