Sermon Notes ...

Series: BOOK OF JAMES

Title: “Enticed by His Own Lusts”

Scripture: JAMES 1:13-15

1. God cannot T_____ you or C_____ you to sin. (JAMES 1:13)
2. Temptation can lead to sin only when W_____ allow it to conceive within us. (JAMES 1:14-15)

DEFINITIONS

LUST (N): a strong desire for something : an intense longing.

QUOTES

“Lust involves any strong desire, craving, or want that opposes the holy will and command of God. Lust perverts, twists, and defiles all that is good and beautiful, and this is particularly true with sexual or carnal lust.”

... Thabiti Anyabwile

“It is our own evil desires that lead us into temptation. We may think we merely respond to outward temptations that are presented to us. But the truth is, our evil desires are constantly searching out temptations to satisfy their insatiable lusts.”

... Jerry Bridges

“Most of us have become so familiar with sin that we no longer see it as a deadly monster. Sin is more dangerous than wild bears, more deadly than blazing forest fires. Ask Nebuchadnezzar, who lost his mind because he refused to deal with his pride. Ask Samson, who was reduced to a pathetic shred of a man because he never got control over the lusts of his flesh. Ask Achan and Ananias and Sapphira, who all lost their lives over ‘small,’ secret sins.”
